Initiative	Specific Actions	Highlights/Challenges
ZC of St.Catharines, ON		This club lost a valued member, Janet Penny. They held a successful English Tea in April
ZC of Niagara Falls, ON		They held a Trivia Night on April 6. Planning a Cent.Flag raising on May 23, 2019
ZC of Fort Erie Area, On		Attended their meeting on April 17. Took pictures of the Cent.Flag with their Club. The Club is officially disbanding and closing their books on 5/31/2019. Lt.Gov. Janice Durmis discussed with members the possibility of Zonta's individual membership. Some are considering joining the St.Catharines Club.
ZC of Lockport, NY		To attract new members they held a "Jingle Mingle" in Dec. and on IWD Roses are given to Women and an Invite to join the Club. I will be attending their Installation Dinner on May 14 and bringing the Centennial Flag. They will be awarding 4 Academic Awards and one YWPA . The club donates infant outfits for their "Bundles for Babies" campaign and a summer clothing drive for victims of sexual assault. Several members are Master Gardeners and participate in planting and maintaining community gardens
ZC of Niagara Falls, NY		They hosted a Cent.Event – Dance the Decades. They officially chartered a Z Club at NF High School. Assembled hygiene bags for several local women's organizations, volunteered at the Magdalene Project, participated at the Niagara

		University's Take Back the Night. Continued with their advocacy project of contacting representatives for bipartisan legislation in line with Zonta's values. They awarded JMK, YWPA and 2 STEM camp scholarships. Celebrating their 95 th Anniversary with the Cent. Flag in place.
ZC of Grand Island, NY		Attended the Mar 12 meeting. The club was in discourse and threatening to disband. Several members stepped up and provided a slate of officers for the next biennium. The current Pres. Resigned and the Pres.Elect will be acting Pres until Installed officially. The held a Fashion Show on 4/28, with the Centennial Flag in place. Sponsoring a FlapJack fundraiser on May 19. The club has overcome some obstacles, but I feel confident the new Board will successfully guide this club into the next term.
ZC of Kenmore, NY		The Club continues to recruit new members through community outreach and Rose Day recipients. The Lucky Number Dinner on April 10 was successful and attend by over 280 guests. The club will be marching in the local Memorial Day parade with the Cent.Flag on 5/27. Academic Awards were 6 high school senior girls and 2 awards to women returning to the workplace. The Service Projects will receive monetary donations to International Zonta Projects, Amelia Earhart, Women Vets, Stepping Stones, Ken-Ton Thanksgiving dinner, Ken-Ton Meals on Wheels, Domestic Violence Projects and Ken-Ton Closet.
