Initiative	Specific Actions	Highlights/Challenges
Centennial Flag event	Mayor Bonnie Crombie and Councilor Kovac, in attendance	Area Director, Nita McCown brought the Centennial Flag. Pictures were taken with some Zontians and a Friend of Zonta , at the Zonta Accessible Park. Further development of this Park along with Councilor Kovac, City and area stakeholders
Participation and fundraising	Zonta Toronto Car Rally,	Funds raised towards our annual ZontaPreneur Scholarship $1500 annual amount to female business student at Sheridan business Campus in Mississauga. Winner is picked (from submissions) by Sheridan staff.
Getting back to Bingo fundraising	Prepare application and related documents to file with City's Charity Bingo programs	Club documents are being updated for 3 year Strategic Plan, updated By-laws. Expect to raise $500 per 2-hour event. Smaller level fundraising ongoing by member Dan McGill.
Ongoing for 5 years	Atiya Ahsan as member of Governance Committee of Peel Institute for Violence Prevention (PIVP). PIVP is an initiative of Family Services of Peel.	Atiya attends quarterly meetings. Also brought some resources to help technical aspects of Ethical Review Policy and Procedures. Also served as volunteer Workshop Facilitator at PIVP's annual Conference in June 2019.
Getting organized with new materials to do a PR reset for the eClub in Mississauga	Working to overcome relatively low profile of Zonta Mississauga after transition o eClub	After Charity Bingo licence (expected positive outcome), and consistent fundraising, a new campaign to raise members ties with other groups working in anti-violence and women's empowerment space
16 Days of Activism	Member Marion McGill	Contacted City of Toronto and got their agreement to light up the Toronto Sign at

		Nathan Phillips Square to orange colour on November 25. Three of our members were there with Zonta Anti-Violence Banner and struck up conversations with other visitors there
Social Media ongoing	Facebook page, Twitter, Quarterly eNewsletter	Members Helen Ofosu and Claire Wallace have contributed a lot in this area
White Ribbon and Walking in her Shoes	Member Dan McGill	Participated in this event this year also.
Comments	We expect our eClub to produce greater results in 2019-2020 and next Zonta year.
