ZONTA INTERNATIONAL STRATEGIES TO END VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN: ENDING CHILD MARRIAGE

Strengthen the critical institutions and systems in 12 countries to engage girls at risk of child marriage through targeted initiatives, including life skills, health information, economic empowerment and social protection.

Goals:

- Building the skills and knowledge of girls at risk of child marriage
- Support households in demonstrating positive attitudes toward adolescent girls
- Strengthening the systems that deliver services to adolescent girls
- Ensuring laws and policies protect and promote adolescent girls' rights
- Generating and using robust data to inform programs and policies relating to adolescent girls

Project's initial phase has the potential to directly reach 2.5 million girls across 12 countries.

Commitment: US$2 million

UPDATE

- Nearly 3 million adolescent girls were empowered through life skills education and training
- 77% of girls transitioned from primary to lower secondary school
- Assistance provided to over 6000 schools to improve the quality of girls education
- 11 governments have developed national action plans to end child marriage, 9 have costed plans and 6 have allocated budgets to implement the plans
- 1.73 million individuals have participated in community dialogues by the Global Programme to address the issues

INTERNATIONAL SERVICE PROGRAM: LET US LEARN MADAGASCAR

The Let Us Learn initiative addresses education and gender inequity in Madagascar through approaches targeted toward adolescent girls.

Goals:

- Ensure that more children, particularly girls (who drop out at higher levels in the post-primary level) have access to post-primary education and stay in school.
- Ensure that Madagascar's education system has the capacity to offer quality teaching for enhanced learning outcomes.

Commitment: $1 million

INTERNATIONAL SERVICE PROGRAM: EID BI EID (HAND IN HAND)

UN Women Jordan

UN Women/Christopher Herwig

A program to improve the resilience and empowerment of Syrian refugee and vulnerable Jordanian women.

Goal: Improve Syrian refugee and Jordanian women's access to sustainable and decent employment, coupled with protection services and community engagement, to enable greater equality and reduced violence against women.

There are expected to be at least 25,760 direct beneficiaries from this initiative; which includes providing decent work opportunities to 300 Jordanian and Syrian women, remedial education services and cr facilities.

Commitment: US$1 million

EID BI EID (HAND IN HAND) SITE VISIT

From 28 – 31 July 2019

AMELIA EARHART FELLOWSHIP FUND

2018-2020 TOTAL FUNDING: US$600,000

- 30 fellowships of US$10,000 each

Dr. Kimberly Ennico Smith
1997-1998 Amelia Earhart Fellow
Co-Investigator and Deputy Project Scientist
NASA's New Horizons Mission

“Women have been making amazing strides so they can be taken for their skills and contributions rather than being identified as a woman first. I long for the day in which we would not pay attention to what sex we are (for statistics) but what we say and do.”

JANE M. KLAUSMAN WOMEN IN BUSINESS SCHOLARSHIP FUND 2018-2020 TOTAL FUNDING: US$224,000

- 6 international scholarships of US$8,000 each
- 32 district/region scholarships of US$2,000 each

Congratulations to our newest Women in Business Scholars

Women make up just 5.6% of S&P 500 companies' CEOs and hold 21.2% of their board positions, according to Catalyst. In an effort to put more women in those decision-making roles, Zonta International has offered the Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship annually for more than 20 years.

The latest class of future female business leaders represents 16 countries and fields from accounting to business administration, economics and more.

Anna Rukko, 2015 YWPA Awardee at the 2016 Zonta International Convention in
Nice, France

“I thank you, Zontians, for the International Young Women in Public Affairs Award. It means a lot for me. Its significance is not only to focus on what I have done, but to encourage me, a young woman, to go on and achieve more and to work harder for important issues.”

WOMEN IN TECHNOLOGY SCHOLARSHIP

MARY E. JENKINS 1919 SOCIETY

What is a legacy gift?

A legacy, or planned gift, is a provision to leave part of your estate to the Zonta International Foundation. It can be a bequest of a specific amount, a percent of your assets, a life insurance policy, stocks, annuities or other financial instruments.

2018-2020 Goal

At least 150 new society members during the Centennial Anniversary Biennium.

Would you like to reserve your place in Zonta's future?

THANK YOU
